longer requires reform, she simply requires grudgegrinders; worn out and exhausted the unhappy nation seeks its tomb and leaves the care of its vengeance to another generation. The chiefs of the dispersed bands endeavor to regain the frontiers carrying into the exile a deeper hatred than ever. Russia has thrown up unheard of amount of cruelty into the struggle. Two decrees have just appeared at St. Petersburg. The one concedes to 30,000 Poles land gratuitously in the government of Siberia, the other orders the sale of confiscated lands belonging to Poles in Lithuania with this significant condition that they

Federal Rule in Louisiana.

(Our own correspondent writes, New York, April 20.)

Little is heard here of the doings of Federal Generals in the South. From the little that is divulged, it would appear, however, that the rule of Gen. Banks at New Orleans is a rigid one. Gen. Banks. The Louisianians are a conquered people, and they are made to feel it. In this respect there is no difference between Buell deserted to a lovely girl. He drank to excess." I agreed not to drink any more, and she said if I broke his pledge she would marry another of his admirers. He drank again. She married the other. He killed her. She was tried, and will be hung, if they do hang her.

Shakespeare is to be celebrated in this city in small way on Saturday, the 23d April. It will not do him any harm. —Standard.
